

Days out from Ivybridge

Suggested Summer '09 Rail Trips : through to 5 September

TEIGNMOUTH & DAWLISH

Teignmouth is an historic port on the mouth of the Teign Estuary with two different characters. Along the seaward edge of the town is "the Den", a large area with lawn and flower beds running between the promenade and an elegant Georgian crescent. There is a pier, theatre and children's play area and a miniature lighthouse. On the estuary side, the town is alive with waterside inns, a busy harbour with boats for hire and ferries to take you across to picturesque Shaldon just across the water.

Dawlish is a pretty resort famed for its black swans with a quiet relaxing feel in a Victorian and Georgian setting. At the heart of the town is a central park called the Lawn, an attractive spot for families to play and relax amongst chestnut trees, colourful flower beds and tall palms. The Brook river containing large numbers of trout runs through the gardens cascading over a series of small waterfalls on its way to the sea.

ST IVES (CHANGE AT ST ERTH)

The best way to arrive in St Ives is by train. Soak up the dramatic views on the St Ives Bay Line from St Erth as the line sweeps alongside the golden sands of Hayle Towans through Carbis Bay and on to St Ives with the panoramic scenery of craggy cliffs and the colourful harbour.

Explore the narrow streets into the heart of this picturesque town with its many galleries, independent shops, pubs and restaurants. Visit Tate St Ives and the Barbara Hepworth Museum and Sculpture Gardens (www.tate.org.uk/stives).

LOOE (CHANGE AT LISKEARD)

Take a trip on the scenic Looe Valley Line and explore the natural beauty of South East Cornwall by train. The branch line from Liskeard to Looe is recognised as one of the most picturesque railway journeys in Britain and enjoys wonderful views from the train window – it's also great for bird watching!

Looe has a fine sandy beach right in the middle of the town, 10 minutes walk from the railway station. It also has access to the South West Coast Path and the hidden beaches and coves along it.

There are plenty of things to do in Looe – the quayside is full of boats offering day trips out, and the streets are a maze of alleyways and back lanes to explore.

NEWQUAY

Another glorious train journey – this time up the beautiful Luxulyan Valley – to the seaside family favourite of Newquay.

Whilst providing a surfer's paradise with the iconic Fistral Beach, Newquay offers many gentler bathing beaches well suited to families with young children (for example Harbour and Towan Beaches).

When you've had enough of sea and sand, you can visit a range of attractions in the town including the Blue Reef Aquarium, Holywell Bay Fun Park, Newquay Zoo and Trenance Park & Gardens. Newquay also offers an attractive array of shops, galleries and places to eat.

PENZANCE, TRURO & FALMOUTH
(CHANGE AT TRURO FOR FALMOUTH)

Penzance is the largest town on the Land's End peninsula. With its harbour, regular ferries to the Isles of Scilly in the summer, the National Lighthouse Museum and the Penzance Museum and Art Gallery (housing one of the largest collections of art from the famous Newlyn School) there is plenty to see and do.

Falmouth offers a charming mix of facilities for the visitor – from its lovely beaches, harbour and boating lake to its many attractive shops, cafés and restaurants. Undercover attractions include the Falmouth Art Gallery, the National Maritime Museum, the Falmouth Arts Centre and the Princess Pavilion. From the Prince of Wales Pier pleasure boats cruise up the River Fal as far as Truro and a ferry runs across to St Mawes.

Truro boasts one of the best shopping centres in the West. There are two busy covered markets to augment the shops and on Lemon Quay is the Creation Centre, an arcade of specialist shops beneath the same roof as the Pannier Market. This beautiful cathedral city lies close to the confluence of the Truro and Fal rivers offering opportunities for relaxing boat trips.
