1. Rules of debate at meetings

- a. Members shall address the Chairperson. If two or more Members wish to speak, the Chairperson shall call upon one of them to speak first.
- b. Whenever the Chairperson speaks during a debate all other Members will be silent.
- c. Minutes of the proceedings of a Council or of a Committee meeting must be drawn up and entered in a book provided for the purpose, and must be signed at the next Council meeting or meeting of the Committee by the Chairperson presiding at the meeting (or, if received electronically, will confirm that they are deemed signed). No discussion will take place upon the Minutes except on their accuracy.
- d. Motions on the agenda shall be considered in the order that they appear unless the order is changed at the discretion of the Chairperson of the meeting.
- e. A motion (including an amendment) shall not be progressed unless it has been moved and seconded.
- f. A Member when seconding a resolution amendment may, if they then declare their intention to do so, reserve their speech until a later period of the debate.
- g. A motion on the agenda that is not moved by its proposer may be treated by the Chairperson of the meeting as withdrawn.
- h. If a motion (including an amendment) has been seconded, it may be withdrawn by the proposer only with the consent of the seconder at the meeting.
- i. An amendment is a proposal to remove words and insert others or to insert or add words. It shall not negate the motion.
- j. If an amendment to the original motion is carried, the original motion (as amended) becomes the substantive motion upon which further amendment(s) may be moved.
- k. A Member may move an amendment to their own motion if agreed by the meeting. If a motion has already been seconded, the amendment shall be with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
- l. If there is more than one amendment to an original or substantive motion, the amendments shall be moved in the order directed by the Chairperson of the meeting.
- m. Subject to standing order 1. n. (below), only one amendment shall be moved and debated at a time, the order of which shall be directed by the Chairperson of the meeting.

- n. One or more amendments may be discussed together if the Chairperson of the meeting considers this expedient but each amendment shall be voted upon separately.
- o. A Member may not move more than one amendment to an original or substantive motion.
- p. The mover of an amendment has no right of reply at the end of the debate on it.
- q. Where a series of amendments to an original motion are carried, the mover of the original motion shall have a right of reply either at the end of the debate of the first amendment or at the very end of debate on the final substantive motion immediately before it is put to the vote.
- r. Unless permitted by the Chairperson of the meeting, a Member may speak once in the debate on a motion except:
  - i. to speak on an amendment moved by another Member;
  - ii. to move or speak on another amendment if the motion has been amended since they last spoke;
  - iii. to make a point of order;
  - iv. to give a personal explanation; or
  - v. in exercise of a right of reply
- s. During the debate of a motion, a Member may interrupt only on a point of order or a personal explanation through the Chairperson and the Member who was interrupted shall stop speaking. A Member raising a point of order shall identify the standing order which they consider has been breached or specify the other irregularity in the proceedings of the meeting they are concerned by.
- t. A point of order shall be decided by the Chairperson of the meeting and their decision shall be final.
- u. When a motion is under debate, no other motion shall be moved except:
  - i. to amend the motion;
  - ii. to proceed to the next business;
  - iii. to adjourn the debate;
  - iv. to put the motion to a vote;
  - v. to ask a person to be no longer heard or to leave the meeting;
  - vi. to refer a motion to a Committee or sub-Committee for consideration;
  - vii. to exclude the public and press;
  - viii. to adjourn the meeting; or
  - ix. to suspend particular standing order(s) excepting those which reflect mandatory statutory requirements.
- v. Before an original or substantive motion is put to the vote, the Chairperson of the meeting shall be satisfied that the motion has been sufficiently debated and that the mover of the motion under debate has exercised or waived their right of reply.

- w. Excluding motions moved under standing order 1. u. (above), the contributions or speeches by a Member shall relate only to the motion under discussion and shall not exceed three minutes without the consent of the Chairperson of the meeting.
- x. Immediately after an un-recorded vote is taken at a meeting, if any Member so requires, there must be recorded in the minutes of the proceedings of that meeting whether that person cast their vote for the question or against the question, or whether they abstained from voting.

2. Disorderly conduct at meetings

- a. No person shall obstruct the transaction of business at a meeting or behave offensively or improperly. If this standing order is ignored, the Chairperson of the meeting shall request such person(s) to moderate or improve their conduct.
- b. If person(s) disregard the request of the Chairperson of the meeting to moderate or improve their conduct, any Member or the Chairperson of the meeting may move that the person(s) be no longer heard or be excluded from the meeting. The motion, if seconded, shall be put to the vote without discussion.
- c. If a resolution made under standing order 2. b. (above) is ignored, the Chairperson of the meeting may take further reasonable steps to restore order or to progress the meeting. This may include temporarily suspending or closing the meeting.

- a. A legal deed shall not be executed on behalf of the Council unless authorised by a resolution.
- b. Subject to standing order 25.a. (above), the Council's common seal shall alone be used for sealing a deed required by law. It shall be applied by the Proper Officer in the presence of two Members who shall sign the deed as witnesses.

26. Communicating with District and County Councillors

- a. An invitation to attend a meeting of the Council shall be sent, together with the agenda, to the ward Councillors of the District and County Council representing the area of the Council.
- b. Unless the Council determines otherwise, a copy of each letter sent to the District and County Council shall be sent to the ward Councillor(s) representing the area of the Council.

27. Restrictions on Member activities

- a. Unless authorised by resolution, no Member shall
  - i. inspect any land and/or premises which the Council has a right or duty to inspect, or
  - ii. issue orders, instructions or directions.

28. Standing orders generally

- a. All or part of a standing order, except one that incorporates mandatory statutory requirements, may be suspended by resolution in relation to the consideration of an item on the agenda of a meeting.
- b. A motion to add to or vary or revoke one or more of the Council's standing orders, except one that incorporates mandatory statutory requirements, shall be proposed by a special motion, the written notice of at least seven Councillors to be given to the Proper Officer in accordance with standing order 10. (above).

- c. The Proper Officer shall provide a copy of the Council's standing orders to a Member as soon as possible after they has delivered their acceptance of office form.
- d. The decision of the Chairperson of a meeting as to the application of standing orders at the meeting shall be final.

29. Delegated authority

- a. Delegated authority and decision making authority may only be delegated to a Committee, sub-Committee or Proper Officer.
- b. Chairmen of Committees or Members are not authorised to take executive action on behalf of the Council.
- c. Where urgent action is required, the Proper Officer shall have delegated authority after consultation with the Town Mayor or Chairperson of the relevant Committee, reporting back to the relevant Committee or Council as soon as possible.
- d. The Proper Officer must produce a record of any decision which would otherwise have been made by a Council, a Committee or a sub-Committee but has been delegated to the officer under a specific authorisation, or under a general authorisation to:
  - i. grant a permission or licence
  - ii. affect the rights of an individual, or
  - iii. award a contract or incur expenditure which materially affects the Council's financial position.

The written record must include:

- i. The date the decision was taken
- ii. a record of the decision taken along with the reasons for the decision
- iii. details of alternative options, if any, considered and rejected

The written record will be presented to Policy and Resources Committee.

- e. The written record, together with background papers, must as soon as is reasonably practicable after the record is made, be available for inspection by Members of the public. However, such disclosure will not apply if the Council believes the information to be of a confidential or exempt nature.
